the American Embassy in Brazil, and Mr. Charles Richardson.

Miss Grace Hall was hostess at luncheon Thursday in the Chi Omega Society room of the George Washington University in honor of Miss Thea Smith. The table was attractively decorated with tulips and other spring flowers. The guests included: Miss Martha Noel, Miss Catherine Owen, Miss Elizabeth Paul, Mrs. Eugene Knight, Miss Theodosia Selbold, Miss Katherine Heron, Miss Jessie Roberson, and Miss Helen Monroe.

Engagements and Weddings

Mrs. Clara F. List announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Emily Carter List, to Mr. Harold B. List, of Indianapolis, Ind. The wedding will be an event of the early autumn.

The marriage of Miss Grace Cordelia Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Middleton, and Mr. John Goodwin Herndon, Jr., of this city, will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Earle Willey, pastor of the church, and will be followed by a reception for the relatives and the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents in Kilbourne place.

Miss Isabel Middleton will attend her sister as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Mildred Collier, of Bloomfield, N. J.; Miss Esther Henderson, Miss Gertrude Tweedy, and Miss Alice Rea. Mr. Niel Herndon, cousin of the bridegroom, will act as best man.

The marriage of Mrs. Marian Gouverneur Helckell Emery, daughter of the late J. Monroe Helckell, of Washington, and Mr. Elias Greer, of Baltimore, will take place at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Saturday, April 10. The ceremony will be witnessed by a small family gathering and will be followed by a breakfast at Cherry Tree Lodge, the home of Mrs. Emory at Roland Park. Her little daughter, Miss Elizabeth Cortright Emery, will be the flower girl, and Mr. Frank G. Patterson will act as best man.

Col. and Mrs. Oscar T. Crosby have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Miriam Terry Crosby, to Conte Mario Caracciolo, of Italy. Miss Crosby sailed yesterday with her mother and sisters on the Duke d'Aosta for Genoa. The exact date of the marriage has not yet been set, but it is understood that it will take place shortly in Italy.

Miss Crosby is as prominent and popular in Washington and New York society as she is in Warren, Va., where Col. and Mrs. Crosby have a handsome estate, at which they have made their home for some years.

Col. Crosby is now in Brussels, where he is connected with the Belgium Relief Association. Mrs. Crosby and the Misses Crosby will join him there later.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Homiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homiller, to Mr. William C. Reestrick, of Detroit, will take place Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Edgar Legg in S. street. Eleanor Homiller will be her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Herbert Trux, of Detroit, will be best man.

The attendants at the marriage of Miss Marian Van Buren to the Rev. Stanley Matthews Cleveland, curate of Zion and St. Timothy's, New York, which will take place at St. John's Church on April 11, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nelson Reed Johnson, in New Hampshire avenue, will include Miss Mary Nagel, of St. Louis, daughter of the former Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel, as maid of honor, and Miss Dorothy Phelps, of Englewood, N. J.; Miss Frances Phelps, of New York; Miss Helen Reid, of Norfolk; Miss Constance Gardner, of Boston and New York; Miss Beatrice Clover, of Cleveland's sister, Miss Eva Cleveland; Miss Phoebe Adams, of Philadelphia; and Miss Sabra Bradlee, of Montclair, N. J., as bridesmaids.

The Rev. Robert Williams, of Montclair, N. J., will be the officiating minister, and the ushers will be his brother, James Cleveland; Prof. Albert Balz, of the University of Virginia; Mr. Hamlin, of Chicago; Clement Kite, of Philadelphia; Rev. Dr. H. H. Van Buren, of New York; Commander Theodore Jewell, George Harding, of Philadelphia, and Harold Van Buren, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Cleveland's small brother, Paul Cleveland, and the young brother of the bride, Francis Van Buren, will serve as pages. The ceremony will be performed by Bishop Matthews, of New York, assisted by Rev. Dr. Luback, rector of Zion and St. Timothy's, and Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church.

Among those seen luncheon at the New Willard yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Folk, Col. Brown, Mr. John Skelton Williams, Col. Frank Taggart, Mrs. E. J. Stillwagon, who entertained a party of seven; Senator William E. Horah, Dr. E. Lester Jones, Mr. E. A. Delano, of the Federal Reserve Board; Chief Justice Covington, Commissioners Louis P. Brownlow and Oliver P. Newman, Director of the Mint; Hon. R. W. Woolley, of the Department of the Interior; and Commissioner Charles F. Nesbit.

In Club Circles

The educational committee of the District of Columbia U. D. C. has completed plans for an "historical evening" on Wednesday, April 7, at Confederate Memorial Hall, 1322 Vermont avenue. Dr. A. J. McKelway will make an address on "The Fifteenth Anniversary of Appomattox." Miss Ruthers will speak on the Klux-Klux-Klan, and Mrs. Elsie Twigg Shields will outline the activities of the United Daughters of the Confederacy from an historical standpoint. An account of the scholarship which has been offered to the U. D. C. will be given by Miss Fanny Weeks, chairman of the educational committee and a member of the Bauregard Chapter, U. D. C. Music, furnished by the Confederate Choir, accompanied by Fulton E. Karr, will complete an interesting program.

The last social meeting of the season of the College Women's Club will be held Wednesday evening, April 7, at 8 o'clock, at the Raleigh. The hostesses will be the members of sections 5 and 6. The club will be addressed by Bailey Willis, who will speak on "Argentina and Argentina," which will be illustrated with lantern slides. A large attendance is expected.

The members of section 3 are Miss Elizabeth Fortune Tru, chairman; Miss Nina Allen, Miss Alice Atwood, Miss Nina May Bailey, Miss Margaret Bayley, Miss H. G. Brown, Mrs. W. K. Butler, Miss Isabel Colcord, Miss Jean Dean Cole, Miss Lula Connor, Miss Em-

John Temple Graves, Jr., son of Col. and Mrs. Graves, is a student at Princeton. Two Washington boys who have taken the trip with the club are M. L. Baker and J. C. Vickery.

The tea-dance and card party to be given at Raucher's tomorrow for the benefit of the Homeopathic Hospital will be a most interesting feature of the Easter season. Special interest is being evidenced in the dance, from 5 to 7 o'clock, and to comply with requests for tea tables a limited number will be reserved in the large ballroom, in charge of Mrs. Charles Sturtevant and Mrs. A. Garrison McClellan. Many parties are being arranged to include the young people home from college and boarding school for the holidays.

A large dance committee of young girls will be assisted by a floor committee of Yale and Princeton students and Washington men, among whom are William Hill, Edgar Legg, Edgar Clark, Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, and Mrs. Washington, of St. Stephen's Church, Church of the Advent, and St. James Church.

Easter Guests

Hon. J. Y. Buchanan, of London, England, who arrived in Washington early in the week, has located at the New Willard, where he has taken an apartment for a stay of some length.

Mrs. W. B. Davis and Miss Davis, of Brooklyn; Mrs. A. Mallory, Miss Mallory, and Miss A. J. Baxendale, of Rochester, are among the New Yorkers who are spending Easter at the Ebbitt.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stokes, of Redfield, Conn., who have been motoring through the South, arrived at the New Willard yesterday for a stay over the Easter holidays.

Capt. Walter H. Ferguson, of the Bureau of Fisheries, who is stationed in Alaska, is at the Ebbitt.

Former Representative Butler Ames and Mrs. Ames, of Massachusetts, are at the New Willard for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Williams, Mr. Henry Williams, and Mr. Ellis Williams, of Johnstown, Pa., are among the Pennsylvanians who are spending Easter in Washington. They are stopping at the Ebbitt.

Mrs. Stannard-Wood and Miss Margaret Gordon, both of Paris, France; Gen. and Mrs. Theodore A. Bingham, of New York; Mr. Stuyvesant Le Roy, of New York, and Mrs. Arthur Crombly, of New York, are guests at the Richmond Hotel during the Easter holidays.

Among the most unflinching of the Red Cross nurses now working in the European war zone is Miss Nona McAdoo, who is stationed in Southern France. She left this country over two months ago, sailing on the Lusitania on January 30, and there is every indication that she will continue her good work as long as there is need for her services. On the trip to Europe the English liner on which she was sailing hoisted the American flag in order to prevent any possible attack which might have been made by German submarines. Miss McAdoo in this way witnessed what has since become one of the most interesting incidents of the war.
